at the Goetheanum and Specialist in Internal Medicine

Open to all doctors, nurses, counsellors, therapists including those in social therapy, who see their work as connected to Anthroposophy and the Medical Section

British Training in Anthroposophic Medicine

The 'Generating Health' and 'Incarnation' Challenges Sleep Disorders and Metabolic Disorders

Generating Our Own Spiritual and Soul Health and our Communal Incarnation Challenges

At a time when any approach to medicine other than materialistic reductionist medicine is being suppressed by economic, administrative and academic pressures. How can we co-create a context for each other and organisations? What initiatives can we take to make the Medical Section a real community of responsibility?
